A dispatch from Barboursville says: A mass meeting was held in the courthouse, and resolutions passed requesting Judge Golden to refuse all requests for license to sell liquor in the county until an election on the question can be held. The election has been set for December 11. The local option law expires the 25th of this month, and an attempt will be made to open saloons here after that date. It is urged that Union College, a theological institute, will be broken up should saloons be permitted. A hot contest will be made.

Mr. B. B. McRoberts and his wife, of Indiana, are here visiting relatives. Misses Julia Gaines, Annie Layd Herring and Minnie West have gone to Bristol, Tenn., to attend school, and Miss Maggie Tomlinson has gone to Louisville for the same purpose.

Since arrangements are being made to nominate a candidate for State Senator and it is Garrison's time to name the man, we hope that George T. Faris will be named, as he is a regular democrat of the old school, well acquainted all over the district and would be a winner.

A large crowd attended the sale of the personal property of Wm. Ray, deceased, Wednesday. Mr. W. H. Lackey reports the following: Wheat 90c to $1.02; yoke of work cattle $94.50; sheep $2.00 to $4.30; cattle $25 to $20; brood mares $18 to $22; old corn $1.60 to $1.97; new corn $1.25 to $1.87 in the heap; hemp $3.45 per hundred; clover hay 25 to 40c.

Mrs. W. C. Wherritt, formerly of Woodford county, died in Versailles Monday night of consumption, in the 36th year of her age. She was an earnest and devoted member of the Presbyterian church. She was married to Mr. W. C. Wherritt, a popular young man of this city, some years ago. For awhile they lived in New Orleans, where he had a lucrative position in the railroad service, but returned to Kentucky on account of her failing health. She was Miss Bailey, of the above named county.

On Wednesday forenoon at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Mattie Sweeney died of a congestive chill in the 54th year of her age, having been ill for some time. The funeral services will be conducted at the Christian church today, (Thursday), at 4 o'clock P. M. by Elder George W. Gowen and the remains will be buried in Lancaster Cemetery. Deceased was formerly Miss Mattie Smith, of Adams county, having married Mr. C. W. Sweeney, a merchant, of this city, who died seven years ago. She leaves a daughter, Miss Olivia, and a son, J. W., who is in the dry goods business. She was an ardent member of the Christian church and an earnest worker in the aid societies, which have done so much to relieve suffering humanity, and her chief aim in life was the cultivation and development of the nobler qualities and attributes of mankind. Her bright face and cheerful words will not only be missed in the household, but in the church and by the entire community. Her deeds will live after her and her children can enjoy the bright hope of a happy reunion in eternity. If they follow the paths through which she led them in this life.

William McCurdy, aged 30, was shot and killed by Frank Carter, 50, at Rock Creek, near Leitchfield. The weapon used was a shotgun loaded with 15 pellets, and the top of McCurdy's head was completely torn away. The tragedy occurred at the home of Carter, and the direct cause of the shooting was McCurdy's attentions to his daughter.

Dr. W. E. Adams, chief surgeon of the Burlington route, on a passenger train between St. Louis and Henderson, was sand-bagged and robbed in the smoking car and it was not discovered until he reached Henderson. He died without regaining consciousness, and there is no clue to the identity of the murderer.

Monroe Halley, of Chillicothe, O., attempted to kill his 16-year-old daughter when he found out she had been secretly meeting a young man he did not like. This angered the young lady who told for her father and gave him a fearful beating.

A wholesale lynching occurred at Versailles, Ind., Wednesday morning. An infuriated mob attacked the jail, overpowered the jailer and lynched five men who were members of a gang of robbers guilty of committing many depredations.

The court of appeals, of New York, has recently held that it was no ground for a new trial because the jury in a murder case attended church on Sunday in custody of the sheriff and heard a sermon on the prevalence of crime.

The silly story which was sent about that a large body of Cherokee Indians from the West were to visit the grave of a deceased chief, near Russellville, was the rankest kind of a fake.

RELIGIOUS.

Dr. J. M. Lagan, of Lexington, wills the Orphans' Home at Midway $5,000 and the College of the Bible at Lexington $2,500.

Rev. P. H. Duncan, of Ludlow, is engaged in meetings in Gallatin county. There have been over 28 additions to the Christian church.

Rev. Joseph Anderson will preach at Crab Orchard Baptist church the 4th Saturday in this month at 7:15 P. M., also at 11 o'clock Sunday.

The value of the churches and the land on which they are erected in this county up to July 1, 1897, is estimated at $980,000,000. Of this sum $118,000,000 belongs to the Catholic church.

The revival at the Baptist church, although embarrassed by the very warm weather, continues in interest. There have been 20 additions besides other professions at Danville. Dr. McGregor is doing the preaching.

A note from Elder J. G. Livingston, who with Elder J. L. Allen is holding a revival at Moreland, says: Our meeting goes on with unabated interest. We organized with 23 members and have had 28 accessions to date.

The Glasgow News says that work has begun on the Free Methodist church at Scottsville, and will be dedicated Oct. 7th by Rev. H. C. Morrison. Meetings will be conducted there by Mr. Morrison and other Free Methodists.

Those who have heard Rev. M. B. Irvine, of Taylorville, Ill., preach at Walnut Flat say he is one of the finest exponents of Scriptural truths they have ever listened to. The meetings will continue over Sunday and longer probably. There have been no additions yet.

Elder S. E. Fowler, of Bowling Green, is preaching some powerful sermons at the Christian church and all who attend are loud in praise of the simple, but eloquent and impressive manner in which he preaches the Word. The day service is well and the night largely attended.

Rev. C. H. Neal writes us to announce that Rev. J. M. Matsumoto from Japan will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning and give a lecture on Japan at night. Also to state he is a young man striving for an education in order to go back as a missionary to his native land, and that the people should bring along a little "change" with them and help him out.

Rev. Gilliam, of the Bethel section, and a Christian divine, is holding one of the most successful meetings ever held in this part of Kentucky. He is holding a meeting at the Baptist Christian church recently erected at Poplar Grove on Brush Creek. At this writing 125 have seen the error of their way. There were 40 baptized Sunday. This is probably the first time they have ever had a chance to hear the gospel, this being one of the "wildest" necks of the county.

The holiness people seem to be in the majority at the Mt. Sterling conference. Revs. E. S. Pollitt and John Reeves were put up for secretary, the former representing the second blessing, the latter rejecting the holiness teachings, and Mr. Pollitt was elected by a decisive majority. When the name of Rev. John Reeves was called, charges were preferred against him of maladministration, on two separate specifications. One charge was preferred by Rev. Rohnd and the second by Rev. Arnold, growing out of the Morrison case, which was continued to a later day of the session.

The Northern Methodist Conference at Pineville adjourned to meet next year at Maysville. The Rev. Jasper Field, of Clark county, was acquitted of seduction on the affidavit of the woman herself. Rev. F. L. Creech was assigned to Middleburg; V. T. Willis to Nicholasville; H. D. Barnett to Philippi; E. B. Hall to Somerset. In the Middleboro district J. S. Miller will be presiding elder, Barboursville, F. Grider; Barboursville circuit, M. M. Rountree; Grays, R. T. Moores; London, E. M. Huggart; London circuit, J. M. Ketron; Middleboro, G. E. Hancock; Pineville, W. H. Crain; Rock Castle, Thomas Stinnett; Williamsburg, John Thomas; Woodbine, T. J. Perkins; J. P. Faulkner, president Union College, Barboursville; W. H. Childers, conference evangelist, Middleboro; George E. Hancock, professor at Union College, Barboursville.

CALL FOR DISTRICT MEETING.

Pursuant to the order of the Democratic Executive Committee for the 18th Senatorial District for Kentucky, the said convention will meet in Stanford, Sept. 30th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of naming the manner and time of selecting a democratic candidate for this Senatorial District and if there is not more than one candidate for the nomination on said day, the said committee by virtue of the power conferred on them, will declare such person the candidate of the party for said office. J. E. CARSON, Chm'n. 18th Senatorial Ex. Com.

MT. VERNON.

Bro. J. S. Forrer will preach here next Sunday.

Circuit court convenes here next Monday. A large crowd is expected.

There is a great deal of sickness in this county at present. Diphtheria and typhoid fever are prevailing.

The residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pennington was destroyed by fire last Wednesday. No one being at home and all was lost.

Don't forget the Mite Party Friday evening in the interest of the Christian Sunday school. It will be held at the residence of Mrs. Rosalind Nesbitt and every one is invited.

Mrs. Cleo Brown is quite ill with erysipelas. Mr. Hugh Miller is in Louisville. Mr. Ep Hanesel goes to Richmond to take the civil service examination for a position. Mrs. Ed Woodall is quite ill.

J. W. Baker was surprised Sunday morning upon entering his store to find that the shelves on the right-hand side had fallen forward, doing damage to queensware and other goods to the amount of several hundred dollars.

A killing occurred near Wildie a few days ago over some hogs. A Mr. Huff shot Mr. Hays, who was driving his hogs out of the field of the former. The examining trial took place last Saturday and a large crowd was in town.

When Judge Morrow comes next week he will be surprised at the absence of the "jug trade." Well the barrel has supplanted the jug and now the whiskey is imported in barrels, we learn, while open saloons grace the thoroughfare.

Hon. J. Speed Smith, of Richmond, candidate for Congress, was in town Friday making friends. He made quite a number by his racy speeches at the contest that evening. T. J. Cress and Miss Sallie Saxton took a trip to Jellico last Saturday and returned married. They are now at home here.

The 6th Silver Medal Contest occurred here Friday evening. The judges, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Messrs. J. Speed Smith, of Richmond, and Dave Jackson, of London, awarded the medal to Miss Annie Thompson, the charming daughter of Mr. F. L. Thompson. The other contestants were Misses Gracie McCall, Fannie McClure, Lula Geatry, Gerlie Davis and Lytle Adams. All received praise and flowers.

A. R. Scott and family, late of Creola, Ala., will occupy the rooms in F. Kreuger's new brick. They are doing a rushing business at the lime kiln. Judge Lair and wife are quite ill, the former dangerously so. Dr. F. J. Brown, of Stanford, was called up this week. Miss Sallie Adams and others attended the supper at Maresburg and report a fine time. The ladies realized a nice sum for church work.

We have nothing but words of praise for the people of Brodhead, who took such a lively interest in the medal contest which we held there. The band furnished its best music, while a large audience showed the interest that is taken in the literary efforts of the young ladies. The contestants were Misses Lillie Huggard, Bettie Wilmot, Delpha Collier, Lula Haggard, Susie Yaden and Lella Pike. The judges, Mrs. Smith, Messrs. E. E. Protheroe and G. Preston, decided in favor of Miss Bettie Wilmot, to whom the handsome medal was then presented in a graceful speech by Mr. R. S. Martin.

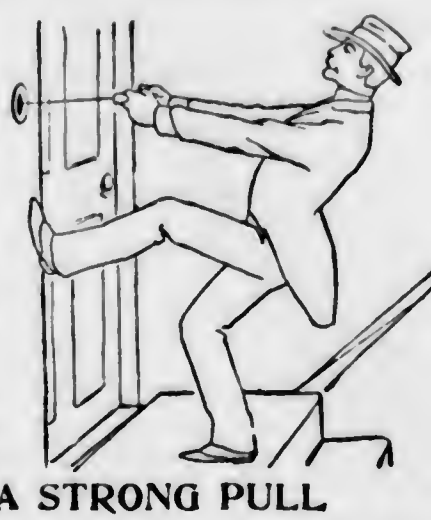

The Maysville Public Ledger has the following:

"Col. Boone's plan of operating the Black Diamond System must commend itself to every thoughtful person. Practically, he forms a partnership with the people along his lines; he gives all the advantages to local patrons, both passenger and freight, and pays but little attention to 'through' business. This avoids the necessity of entering into a 'pooling' arrangement and division of earnings with other lines. If any one thinks this plan cannot be successful, reference is made to the New York Central Railway, where a similar system has been in operation for several years. The result there has been that there is an almost continuous elty along the line of that railway from New York City to Buffalo, a distance of 450 miles. A few years must develop a similar condition along the lines of the Black Diamond from the lakes to the sea."

Col. Boone and several other gentlemen will lay their plan before our people on the 28th.

The Owenton Herald, which does us the honor to reproduce some of editorials, heads the last one in this complimentary manner: W. P. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, is such a loyal democrat and writes so earnestly and conservatively that we owe no apology to our readers for quoting liberally from him.

Seven recent incendiary fires in Indianapolis have been traced to three small boys, little more than babies, whose desire to see the engines turn out had cost property owners about $50,000.

THE trials of the bribery cases against Hunter et al were set for yesterday at Frankfort. That old gum shoe would have done anything and promised anything to have secured the Senatorial prize admits of not a doubt, for he scruples at no means to secure an end, but it is hardly probable that sufficient evidence can be produced to convict him of the charge that he is called to meet. The Scotch verdict, "guilty but not proven," will likely result and the old gum shoe will march on to Washington with stealthy tread and beg for the office that has been withheld from him because he was under the ban of indictment. We met Senator Wm. Goebel at Lexington en route to Frankfort to be a witness for Hunter and he seemed to think it quite a joke that the Cumberland county statesman should have had him summoned.

JUDGE COX, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, being a republican and a partisan, decides in effect that the civil service law is a delusion and a snare, a humbug and a fraud. The decision was in the case of John G. Woods, who was removed as superintendent of mails at Louisville, and who sought to restrain the postmaster general from making the removal. He says that the rules adopted by the president and the civil service commissioners are not such as the law authorizes and are therefore ultra vires and void and that the plaintiff is entitled to no relief. The case will go to the supreme court, but the prospect is that Cox will be sustained. The decision has been watched with anxious hearts by the republicans, who are elated over it.

It is quite amusing to those who are acquainted with the capacity and the Methodist exhorter, nasal twang style of oratory of the Hon. Jim Hindman to read how he gets away with democratic orators of the free silver persuasion. One would imagine by perusing the Courier-Journal that James lives off of spell-binders, occasionally bolting a big fat one whole for luncheon. The fact of the business is Brer Hindman is neither an orator nor a statesman, and the efforts of our esteemed contemporary to make him appear one, are as futile as they are ridiculous. Come off, James, you are gnawing a file.

THE red stamp has to go. The postmaster general finds that he can save $10,000 a year by printing the two-cent stamps green and it has been decided to change the color. Carmine is the most costly of inks and while $10,000 isn't much for this great government every little helps, when it is remembered that it takes $141,200,151 a year to pay the pensioners, many of whom do not deserve the government's bounty. For the next term the postal cards will be printed by a Piedmont, W. Va., firm, which is to print 2,250,000,000. They will weigh 12,650,000 pounds.

WHEN they go a'lynching, they go a'lynching in Indiana. The citizens of Versailles awoke Wednesday morning to see five lifeless bodies of worthless men strung up together. They had been taken from the jail and made short work of for the numerous robberies and other crimes committed in that section, in many cases torturing their victims almost to death. The verdict is "served them right," but it would have been much better for the law to have taken its course.

GOV. McCREARY has accepted an invitation from the regular democracy of Fayette to speak at the Opera House, Lexington, Saturday night, Oct. 2. The bolshewicks have fused with the rads over there in order to get a smell of the pie, but from all we could learn, they will lose out entirely. Gov. McCreary's conservative course and efforts at a harmonious reunion of the factions make him a specially fine man to address the people and he will do a world of good wherever his voice is heard.

THE so-called National democrats who nominated Hindman to preserve the integrity of the party and then go and fuse with the republicans for the loaves and fishes, do not seem to possess the jewel of consistency. Politics is a mighty uncertain business and politicians who begin to bolt go down on the sliding scale.

THE yellow fever panic in the South is becoming more pronounced. New cases at New Orleans, Mobile, Edwards, Miss., and at other points have sent terror to the hearts of the people, who are fleeing in great numbers. Many cities have quarantined against the Southern country and Atlanta is threatened with quarantine because it offered a refuge to fugitives. The government has begun fumigating the mail from infected towns. All Alabama towns have quarantined against Mobile. From Nashville South, no passengers from the Gulf towns are permitted to stop, or express matter to be delivered. Cincinnati Southern trains are watched and suspected people kept out of Cincinnati. The intensely hot weather aggravates the situation, which is daily becoming more alarming.

ONE of James' colored U. S. marshals, Rev. P. H. Kennedy, has resigned already, giving as a reason that the pay was not sufficient. The real reason is doubtless the fear that some moonshiner or other law-breaker might make a target of him and send him to kingdom come before he wishes to go. A moonshiner wouldn't want anything better than a chance to shoot a "d-nigger marshal's" head off.

WHAT is this? Do our eyes deceive us or is it really true that a cut of 17 1/2 per cent. has been made in the wages of the employees of the Ohio Falls Car Works at Jeffersonville? What's the matter with the general? What general? General Prosperity, of course.

THE Louisville Dispatch does us the honor to copy, with additional comment, the article in the Harrodsburg Sayings, which we referred to last issue, as being so eulogistic of our humble self.

POLITICS

Postmaster General Gary will have a bill introduced in Congress providing for postal savings banks.

The Dispatch says that John Rhea literally bayed candidate Hindman alive at Bowling Green.

Senator Lindsay has a number of appointments to speak for Hindman, but luckily gives us the go-by.

A tent with a seating capacity of 8,000 has been purchased for the big silver camp meeting at Springfield, O.

It is not thought the president will give much time to patronage during his two or three days at Washington this week.

E. D. Scott, late of Stanford, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for representative from Lexington.

The physicians of Louisville have organized a Weaver club with 200 members. Dr. Clint Kelly (Big Medicine) is president.

Fusion party leaders at Lexington will apply to courts to oust at least 25 election officers appointed by County Judge Bullock.

Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, Congressman Rhea and others will speak at a big democratic barbecue in Bullitt county September 28.

State Chairman Johnston removed feud-leader, Ed Calahan from the position of chairman of the Breathitt county democratic committee.

The Hon. Champ Clark impulsively says that "If God Almighty hadn't caused a crop failure abroad there wouldn't be enough republicans in the next House to count."

Gov. Bradley has ordered Inspector Lester to make a thorough examination of the books and accounts at the Frankfort penitentiary, with the assistance of an expert accountant.

Chairman Johnston, of the democratic State committee, declared at the Louisville Hotel last night that the outlook for the success of the democratic ticket is all that could be desired.—Dispatch.

The New York democratic State committee nominated Judge Parker for the court of appeals and expelled Henry D. Purroy. The Chicago platform was ignored, but silver men will support the ticket.

President Andrews, whose resignation was requested by the board of trustees of Brown University at Providence, R. I., because of his free silver views, will remain with the institution, the request having been withdrawn.

Inspector Lester, in reporting on claims of Lexington policemen for arrests on felony charges, says it is evident to him that almost every street fight and petty larceny case in Lexington is magnified into a felony case by the police officers for the purpose of collecting a fee from the State.

The democrats of Russell county have put out the following good ticket: County Clerk, W. S. Stone; Attorney, J. C. Meadows; Sheriff, A. R. Foley; Jailor, J. C. Bernard; Assessor, G. P. Workman; School Superintendent, Miss Emeline Lapsley; Representative, Russell and Casey, J. P. Clayton, of Creelsboro.

Ex-County Chairman, J. W. Chaney, of the prohibition party in Madison, tells the Register that the bulk of the prohibitionists in Madison and, in fact, all over the State will vote for Shackelford over their nominee, O. T. Wallace, for appellate clerk. Wallace is a gold bug and the majority of his party favors silver, he says.

Unless we have overlooked some of them, the following papers are the only bolshewick organs in the State outside of Louisville: Shelby Sentinel, Harrodsburg Democrat, Elkton Progress, Mayfield Monitor, Owensboro Inquirer, Bullitt Pioneer, Smithland Standard, Owensville Outlook and Danville Advocate. It will be observed that there are just enough of them to organize a base ball team.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian. It is hardly fair to class the Advocate in the list. It is supporting the democratic ticket, county and district.

IT appears that we were a little premature in our publication of the settlement of the Bradford case. Our information was obtained from a reliable source and while our statement will likely be the basis of settlement, it has not been consummated yet.

YOU can go to Chattanooga via the O. & C. to-morrow and stay until the 22d for $2.50 the round-trip from all stations. High Bridge to Somerset. This is a very cheap chance to visit that historical city and view the famous battle grounds in the vicinity.

REPORTS from Danville say that the trustees of Centre College are outraged over the way that Dr. Minton, who was elected to the presidency, treated them. He failed to come and sent a lame excuse for not doing so. Prof. Fales was then elected president pro tem.

SUFFICIENT rain fell just beyond Rowland Tuesday to fill the mud holes along the Crab Orchard pike and around Maywood the ground was made almost wet enough to plow. At the hour the rain fell on these favored localities old Sol was shining at Stanford at a rate that is too hot to talk about.

THE rats meet to-morrow to put a head and tail on their county ticket. Who they will nominate for judge and representative is not the "all-absorbing topic" by a long shot, but on the contrary nobody seems to care whether either the head or tail or both are put on or left off. It's a foregone conclusion that the democrats are going to win this year and it matters not what the committee does.

KILL THEM.—Marshal Newland has put out hand bills stating that all owners of dogs must pay tax on them at once. There are probably more dogs in Stanford than any other town in Kentucky. If one can judge by the way they hold nightly concerts when people want to sleep. It is to be hoped that taxes will be paid on but few and that the rest will be shipped to some bologna sausage factory immediately. Nearly every Negro in town owns several canines.

THEY are telling a good one on Charlie Withers, which is as follows: When he offered to sell his wheat to J. H. Baughman & Co. he suggested that he would take the price the Danville millers were paying and it was agreed that they telegraph to ascertain their price. Mr. Baughman wrote the message which was sent, but before the answer came Mr. Withers grew nervous and going off into a corner by himself was heard to remark: "What a fool I am; they know Baughman's handwriting over there and I'll bet I won't get enough for my wheat to pay for the seed." His troubles ceased, however, when a reply came showing that the Danville market was just what Mr. B. had offered.

ALL persons having claims against Lincoln county will please file same on or before Sept. 25th. J. F. Cummins, Clk. L. C. C.

LEFT.—A few more chances at our elegant music box. Remember we give a chance free to every $1's worth of goods you buy. Tanner Bros., McKinney.

AT Junction City Wednesday there were 64 deaf mutes en route to the Institute at Danville. Of them 39 came from the western part of the State and 25 from the mountains.

THIRTY percent, is Mr. Jno. Bright's estimate of the amount that the corn crop has been cut short by the drought in this section. It continues fearfully dry and hot, the mercury reaching nearly 100 every day for a week.

RAIN.—George Washington Greene, of the L. & N., tells that there was quite a heavy rain at Pine Hill Wednesday, which extended as far down as Mt. Vernon. We love to hear about such things if we never see them again.

VERY little is being said about the turnpike election, but we take it that all good citizens, who wish to see the will of the majority carried out will help to correct an egregious mistake by voting to free the pikes, as well as for bonds to buy them with.

MUSIC.—Parties desiring instruction in Instrumental, Vocal or Guitar music can receive same by applying to me at my residence on Main Street. Special attention given to Technique, etc. Pupils will be required to study Harmony, also to meet in class form once a week, to receive instruction in sight singing. Terms, two lessons a week, $1 per month. Mrs. Margaret A. Fortman.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets from Stanford to the Union Veteran Legion, National Encampment, at Columbus, O., Sept. 21 to 24, at $5.15 via Kentucky Central Division. Tickets will be sold 19th and 20th, good to leave Columbus not later than the 27th. The fare from Crab Orchard is $6.75. A rate of one and one-third fares for the round-trip will be given Sept. 27th, 28th and 29th to Cincinnati and Louisville on account of the Merchants' Excursion. Tickets good to return in 10 days.

THE Lincoln County Medical Society had an interesting meeting at Hustonville Tuesday when a large number of the members were in attendance. The opening paper, "Normal Labor," was read by Dr. J. C. Baker and 14 hours were spent in discussing it, a majority of the doctors taking part. Dr. L. S. Wesley read a well-prepared paper on the "Resection of Joints," which was followed by one by Dr. Steele Bailey on the "External and Internal use of Cold Water." Dr. Bertie Carpenter's subject was "Hay Fever," which was handled in a masterly manner. Dr. J. G. Carpenter gave the members a short talk, which was greatly enjoyed. The visitors were royally dined by the local physicians.

WARREN.—The daily prayer for months of Mrs. Maria Warren to be at rest was answered Tuesday, when death came suddenly and with little pain. She got up that morning apparently in her usual health and attended to her household duties, prepared things for dinner and stirred around considerably. Miss Emma Warren was sick and at home and she told her to lie on the couch, but Miss Emma told her to use it herself and she would go up stairs and lie down. She had not been gone long until she heard Mrs. Warren gasp and going down she found her in convulsions. Dr. Hugh Reid happened to pass at the time was called in and he suggested that a drink of whisky and water be given her. She heard it and said, "Give me water, but I will drink no whisky." Soon she went into another convulsion and in less than half an hour was dead—dead as she had hoped always to die, suddenly and without being a trouble to others. Mrs. Warren's maiden name was Maria Lamb VanPelt and she was born Feb. 19, 1819, making her 78 years old. She was married three times, first to James Dawson by whom she had two children, only one of whom are living, Dr. J. W. Dawson, of Cleveland, O., who was paralyzed two years ago and whose helpless condition had been the subject of so much concern to the aged mother. Her husband lived about 10 years after their marriage and a few years after his death, she married Burton McKinney, who only lived some three years. About 20 years ago she married Mr. James R. Warren, who at the age of 94 preceded her to the grave but a few months. Mrs. Warren was one of nine children, only two of whom survive, Mrs. Mary J. Murphy and Mr. Wm. VanPelt, of Indianapolis. For 60 years deceased had been a member of the Christian church and was in every way a good and true woman. She knew that her Redeemer lived and she was impatient to go to Him and find rest, sweet rest. Elder Joseph Ballou preached the funeral discourse at her late home, assisted by Elder Joseph Severance, and spoke of her in the most praiseful words as a woman and a Christian, after which many friends followed the remains to Buffalo Cemetery.

THE "National" democrats seem to have over-reached themselves. Their intemperate address is acting as sort of a boomerang.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Mrs. E. L. Grubbs sends us the following: E. W. Hayden was run over while crossing the track in Independence, Mo., Monday and so badly mangled that he died at 6:30 p. m. Thursday. He was the only brother of Mrs. Martha Young, of Shelby City, and brother-in-law of W. P. Epperson. His wife was Miss Susie Stephenson. His remains were brought to Harrodsburg, his old home, and laid to rest.

WHO could have thought this of Col. Cindcock? In his Wednesday's paper he tells of a young country couple promenading by the court-house, when the girl stopped short with an "Oh, my!" while her countenance betrayed evidences of deep emotion. The young man was dumfounded and began hastily to inquire if she was sick, if she had been stung by a bee or "what was up, any way?" "There's nothing up; it's something down. That's what's the matter. Turn your back." He turned, she arranged the trouble and love resumed its sway.

As a member of the committee to select a farm for the State Reform School we spent a couple of days in Fayette this week, and breathed enough dust almost to make a small farm of our own. Though exceedingly dry there, it has been pretty reasonable all the summer and the crops of corn, hemp and tobacco are good, especially the latter, which is now nearly all cut and said to be of excellent quality. Promise of prosperity seems to have fooled the people there into believing that their lands are worth much more than they were, for we had no farm offered to us for less than $100 and from that to $200 per acre, and we can not buy within three miles of the city limits. The former price was for lands four miles from the city and without improvements. The advantages of a number of farms were considered and a selection will be made by the full board of trustees, which meets at Lexington next Tuesday.

FOR SALE OR RENT. EIGHTY-FIVE ACRES one mile from Crab Orchard on the Somerset road. Will sell half or all or rent for 1898. For particulars call on or address W. T. STEPHENSON, Crab Orchard, Ky.

Sept. 30th, 1897, for furnishing to the city of Stanford 100 feet of 2 1/2 inch smooth rubber fire hose, said hose to be furnished in 50 foot sections complete, with standard couplings. J. B. BAUGHMAN, G. L. PENNY, Committee.

Disc Drill

BEST: MADE!

Lies Don't Go.—Messrs. B. K. Wearin & Son, Stanford—Gentlemen: In reply to your letter will say that the Kentucky Disc Drill stands strictly on its merits; the makers light their law suits in court and not in the papers and no purchaser of this drill need fear any legal entanglement. Also that other drills must be deficient in real merit when their makers seek to scare people into buying them. We guarantee protection.
